Middle East Series: Investing or Moving to the UK Post Lockdown?

Register Here

Join us for a live discussion focused on HNW individuals from the Middle East considering investing in or relocating to London. Andrew Weir, Chief Executive at London Central Portfolio (LCP), will be joined by an expert panel from Dubai & London discussing the key considerations of an international move, including the legalities, financing, logistics and the sourcing of a suitable property.

London remains an extremely attractive destination for many individuals and families in the Middle East for investment, residency, education, business & leisure.

The webinar will be sponsored by:
